ABOUT US

Headquartered near Jacksonville, Florida, SUVI Technology Group is a recognized, innovative Information Technology firm specializing in staff augmentation, software development, project management, technology solutions, training and strategic planning.

Our projects have earned recognitions from nationally accredited organizations such as "Redmond Developer", which named one of our projects as the 2008 winner for service - oriented architectures.

Our outstanding team has the credentials and experience to help our customers get to where they want to go.

CORPORATE FACTS

SUVI Technology Group, Inc.   Phone: 904-541-0411
5000 US Highway 17 Ste. 18 #240,
Fleming Island, FL, 32003   Website: www.suvitechgrp.com

Susana Castro, President   Email: scastro@suvitechgrp.com

SUVI Technology Group is an approved vendor for the State of Florida. We were awarded with the Florida State Term Contract for Information Technology Consulting Services (Contract number: 973-56 1 -0 10-1)

Incorporated in 2004

PROVEN CAPABILITIES

SUVI Technology Group has a proven track record of providing a variety of staff augmentation, software development, project management, technology solutions, training and strategic planning services to clients such as: Clay County Chamber of Commerce, North West Florida Water Management District (NWFWMD), Department of Environmental Protection (DEP), Palatka Rotary Club, Punxsutawney Rotary Club, South Florida Water Management District (SFWMD), South West Florida Water Management District (SWFWMD) and the St. Johns River Water Management District (SJRW MD).

A partial list of the services provided recently by SUVI Technology Group include:

Service	Description	Client
Project Management	• Managed a large software development project for a water management system that had over 15 developers and over 300 users. The project was awarded first place by Redmond Developer News on their yearly software development competition in the .Net category (best service-oriented architecture project).	South West Florida Water Management District
Project Management	• Managed a software development project to develop a multi-district portal for water management.	St. Johns River Water Management District
Software Development	• Developed an on-line membership payment system using PHP and MySQL • Developed an on-line Health Screening registration system using PHP and MySQL	Clay County Chamber of Commerce
Software Development	• Developed and Environmental Resource Permitting On-line system using Java/J2EE & Oracle • Developed a Well Construction On-line system using Java/J2EE & Oracle • Developed a Well Completion On-line system using Java/J2EE & Oracle	North West Florida Water Management District
Software Development	• Developed an on-line Blood Screening system using PHP and MySQL	Punxsutawney Rotary Club

Software Development/ Staff Augmentation	• Provided a Software Architect to lead a team of .Net developers developing a Project Information Management System. Development was done using C# and Oracle. • Provided a .Net developer to provide support for a large system developed using C# and Oracle.	South West Florida Water Management District
Software Development/Staff Augmentation	• Provided 2 senior developers for the development of an on-line data submittal system associated with Water Management. The software was developed using Java/J2EE and Oracle • Provided 1 senior developer for the development of a compliance and enforcement system for Water Management.	South Florida Water Management District
Strategic Planning	• Assisted the District with various "Gap Analysis" projects and also coached the district in the creation of a methodology and plan to achieve the desired objectives in a short timeframe.	St. Johns River Water Management District
Technology Solutions/Staff Augmentation	• Provided a Customer Service Technician to be the technical customer service representative in one of the offices of the District. Supported over 50 users. • Provided an Oracle Database Administrator to provide Database Administration services for Oracle 11 g and Oracle RAC. • Provided 2 senior consultants to support/customize Oracle HRS and Payroll. • Provided a report developer to create dynamic financial reports using Actuate, Crystal Reports and Oracle.	St. Johns River Water Management District

Training	• Provided Microsoft .Net training for District Staff to raise their level of proficiency in the development of software.	South West Florida Water Management District
Training	• Provided Project Management (PMP) training to employees of the District • Provided customized training sessions for the implementation of new business processes	St. Johns River Water Management District

Upon request, specific reference contacts can be provided for the clients/services presented in the table above.